Overview

Emory will not employ anyone under the age of 16. No one under the age of 18 will be employed in any position deemed hazardous by Human Resources. These include roofing, operation of hoists, elevators, vehicles, power-driven tools or baking machines, saws or shears, as well as jobs involving exposure to hazardous materials. Minors may participate in activities according to the requirements and conditions described in Emory University Policy 7.21, “Minors in Emory University Laboratories,” http://www.policies.emory.edu/7.21.

Policy Details

1. Employment Certificate (State Law) is no longer required by the state of Georgia Department of Labor dol.georgia.gov/youth-work-permit-online.

2. All Minors seeking to participate in internships or special programs offered by departments during the summer or the regular school year must obtain written permission from their parent or legal guardian using the provided Minors On Campus Agreement. (LINK TO BE PROVIDED)

3. Departments wishing to offer individual internships or special summer programs to minors must present an outline of the program or internship activity planned for the minor’s participation and who will give oversight at all times to Human Resources for approval.

4. Departments who have received approval from Human Resources for their programmed activities will also complete a departmental consent form to comply with safety and oversight rules and regulations when minors are on campus. (LINK TO BE PROVIDED)

The minor takes the original (white) copy of the Certificate to the employer. The employer must maintain this copy of the certificate as long as the minor is employed.
